SISKIYOU CHILD CARE COUNCIL

Payment Assistance Programs

To receive subsidized child care and development services, families must meet income eligibility and need criteria. The family income and family size determines eligibility and the need is established when parents are employed, seeking employment, participating in vocational training, homeless and seeking permanent housing, or incapacitated.

INCOME ELIGIBILITY

A family is income-eligible if their gross monthly income does not exceed the amount indicated on the chart below, as corresponds to their family size.

Family size is roughly determined by the total number of adults and children living in the home.

Countable Income sources include: wages/salaries, self-employment income, child support/spousal support, Cash Aid (TANF or CalWORKs), worker's compensation, disability insurance payments, unemployment, pensions or annuities, veteran's benefits.

Family Size	Family Monthly Income
1-2	$6,008
3	$6,842
4	$7,941
5	$9,211
6	$10,482
7	$10,720
8	$10,958
9	$11,196
10	$11,435
11	$11,673
12	$11,911

NEED CRITERIA

Every parent or guardian must fulfill one of the following need requirements:

- working
- in a training program
- going to school
- have a reason they cannot care for their own children
- A written referral from the appropriate legal, medical, or social service agency may establish eligibility under the following conditions:
 - Children who are in need of protection from, or who are at risk of abuse, neglect or exploitation.
 - Children whose parents are incapacitated and cannot provide adequate care for their children.
